

Packing List

Plunder to Remember for your Western Vacation

This is a suggested packing list. Contact us if you have any questions!

- _____ Heeled riding boots without cleats (not big-toed, cleated hiking boots)
- _____ Horseback riding (not bicycle) helmet. Bring your own for sanitary and safety reasons.
- _____ Head-to-toe rain gear (Wal-Mart pant & jacket rain suits, not ponchos)
- _____ Wide-brimmed hat for protection from intense sun or rain
- _____ Sun screen & chap stick (lip balm) with sun protection
- _____ Sun glasses (with UVA and UVB protection)
- _____ Long sleeved shirts to protect against the sun
- _____ Riding gloves to protect against the sun
- _____ Wind breaker or warm, lined jacket
- _____ Sweater, sweatshirt, or fleece for cool nights
- _____ Sleeping bag to use on your mattress in the cabin and on any overnight camping trips
- _____ Pillow
- _____ Toiletries including a towel, wash cloth & baby wipes
- _____ Plastic bag for dirty clothes or wet towels
- _____ Any medications you require
- _____ Flashlight (torch) and batteries
- _____ Camera
- _____ Swimsuit
- _____ Walking shoes and slippers for in the Lodge
- _____ Thumb drive for sharing photos with other guests in your group
- _____ Cell phone holder like Horse Holster (don't lose your phone on a ride!)
- _____ $500 for off ranch activities & meals, fuel contribution, rental car and other Yellowstone trip expenses (this amount does not include personal purchases and souvenirs)
- _____ Insurance info (be sure that your insurance covers extensive horseback riding). Travel insurance is recommended in case you must cancel your trip for any reason.

Note that the weather in Wyoming varies. Riders may experience heat, cold, wind, rain and snow, all in one day (if you are lucky!) Think layers! Items other than riding helmet may be purchased in Cody after arrival. Don't over pack. We have laundry facilities available 24/7.
