Please write a few sentences elaborating on the information in your Booking Form about your background and why you are interested in training at the WEC. Use a separate sheet of paper if needed. Indicate that you understand that this is an off-grid, rustic working ranch, without amenities such TV, and with limited internet, texting, and other digital media.

Please acknowledge that you have reviewed the Packing List and understand what you need to bring.

You, along with other guests in your group, will participate in shaping the calendar of on-ranch rides and off-ranch activities after your arrival, including planning a trip to Cody to pick up a rental car for off-ranch activities, if necessary.

All guests are expected to participate in all activities, but this is not an endurance contest. If you need time off, speak with a wrangler. If you have goals you want to accomplish, or special circumstances to share, use this Application.

We will continue to discuss your goals with you while you are here to be sure they are realistic and try to help you attain them. Please be candid with yourself and with us about your abilities, expectations, and limitations.

The price includes only on-ranch activities. You should budget for off-ranch activities. Travel insurance is strongly recommended in case you must cancel your trip for any reason (See Refund Policy).
