Please write a few sentences elaborating on the information in your Booking Form about your background and why you are interested in attending HorseWorks Wyoming/WEC so that we can be sure your objectives are appropriate to our ranch and can help you attain them.

Indicate that you understand that this is an off-grid, rustic working ranch, without amenities such as TV, and with limited internet, texting, and other digital media, and acknowledge that you have reviewed the Packing List and understand what you need to bring.

You and other participants in your group will contribute to finalizing the calendar of on- and off-ranch activities after your arrival, including planning a trip to Cody to pick up a rental car for off-ranch activities, if necessary.

We look forward learning your goals on this Application to discussing your goals with you while you are here to be sure they are realistic and try to help you attain them. Please be candid with yourself and with us about your abilities, expectations, and limitations.

The price includes only on-ranch activities. You should budget for off-ranch activities. Travel insurance is strongly recommended in case you must cancel your trip for any reason (See Refund Policy).
